Chills

Ever become chilled through and through?

The acute sensation of cold is followed by feverishness and aches in all parts of the body. Finally the whole troubles settles in the throat and lungs in the shape of a cough. There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

will cure these chills and coughs. A few doses are sufficient at first. More time is required later on.

Stop coughing and you will get well. Keep coughing and you invite bronchitis, pneumonia, or even consumption itself. Better stop your cough at once and thus end the whole matter.

MOONLIGHT

"From Vagrant Verses" by H. M. Ayres.

Above the ships of night their lights are burning,
Shoreward the whispering tide is slow returning,
And souls of flowers fill the night with yearning:
Aloha oe.

O'er all, the moon her silver charm is flinging
Afar, the guitar's lay chords are ringing,
And softly sweet a gentle voice is singing—
Aloha oe.

O beautiful spot! in Nature's bosom lying,
O wondrous voice! soft as the zephyr's sighing,
O heart—sweet heart! in living or in dying,
Aloha oe.

The above is taken from the beautiful little booklet entitled "Vagrant Verses" and for sale at the

SPEEDING THE HORSES

Duchess Goes Fast and Aggravation and Antidote—Hilo Wants Week's Races.

There are practically no new developments in the "Cocoa" blistering case. The affair was the principal topic of conversation among horsemen yesterday and there is a growing tendency to regard the horse's injury as the result of an accidental administration of some blistering preparation, rather than as due to an act of malice.

Jack Gibson had no conversation with Mr. Carter on Sunday about caring for his horse after the work-out, and the animal was entrusted to one of Gibson's assistants, named Sullivan, by Mr. Carter himself.

Sullivan volunteered for the job of rubbing the horse, as business about the stables was slack and the man was anxious to make a dollar or so on the side. The horse was under Sullivan's supervision all the time and he declares that it was absolutely impossible for anyone to have tampered with the animal without his knowledge.

As far as can be ascertained, the amount bet on Cocoa was not more than $30, which fact tends to render the theory of foul play untenable. Had the injury been sustained by a favorite for one of the big events, on whom a load of money was likely to be bet, foul play would naturally be suspected, but in this case nothing of the kind was probable. The race was the outcome of a discussion as to the relative merits of horses owned by four gentlemen, and this method was chosen to settle the question.

Many opinions were expressed yesterday that the injury was more or less fictitious and that Cocoa's owner was anxious to withdraw from the race on account of reports as to the time made by his opponents' horses.

Mr. Carter, on being interviewed yesterday, emphatically denied this and said that he was willing to go ahead with the race as scheduled, but that Messrs. Nichols, Wilder and Gilman were opposed to such a proceeding and insisted on withdrawing from the event unless it was satisfactorily proved that the affair was accidental. They were also influenced in this decision by being unwilling to take advantage of the injury sustained by Mr. Carter's horse.

Mr. Carter is exceedingly disgusted with the whole matter, and particularly so because this is the first instance of the kind to occur on the local track, which has hitherto enjoyed a perfect immunity from suspicion of foul play.

Mr. Carter's coachman declares that after applying a bandage to the horse's leg a smell of balsam was distinctly noticeable, and that while the horse appeared to be hungry, he mouthed his oats but did not eat them, acting as if his mouth were sore. He thinks balsam was applied to the mouth also.

It is quite possible one of the stable boys anxious to earn a tip got hold of a bottle containing balsam by mistake and did not discover his error until his hand began to hurt and then, fearing a reprimand, held his peace.

Much regret is felt in town that the race has been abandoned, for from a spectacular point of view, it should have proved the best on the card.

Yesterday's work was as follows: Antidote and Allegro worked five furlongs together in 1:06½; the latter was all out.

The sorrel horse from Hilo went a mile in 1:51½; he can't go much better than this.

The bay mare from Hilo negotiated five furlongs in 1:06½.

Venus and Manu galloped slow miles. Floris and Sir Cassimir did useful work on the track.

Weller, Amarino, Flamerif, General Cronje and Garterline were out in the park. Aggravation worked a good half in :51.

The Lord Brock colt worked a quarter; he is of little present account, but will win races next year if well taken care of.

Fred. Eros went a heat or two, the first of which was made in 2:30; last half 1:13; he is an honest horse.

Directress worked three heats, the best in 2:28½.

"Bob" Burns, who came from Hilo with two runners, says he does not expect to win a race, but came over to help the meeting; he hopes that Honolulu owners will reciprocate and send their horses to Hilo.

J. R. Wilson says that if the Hilo meeting is a success and owners will support the movement, there is likely to be a week's racing in the Rainy City.

Maurice McMahon made his appearance on the track yesterday; he went well and looks in the pink of condition; the Hilo runner will have to go some, however, to take that medal back with him.

The Hilo executive committee has offered a gold medal for a mile walking race between McMahon and a local man, the race to take place in Hilo on July 4th.

Entries closed yesterday for the approaching races.

Antedates Civilization.

Before civilized man had heard or dreamed of it, Kickapoo Indian Oil was healing the wounds, relieving and curing the aches and pains of the Red Man. Before civilized man had heard of it, it kept the natives in perfect health. And since civilized man has known it, the category of cures has become voluminous. No other medicine has made such cures, because Kickapoo Indian Oil is nature's remedy, and nature stands back of it. Your druggist has it, or can get it. Insist on getting the genuine Kickapoo Indian Oil. Hobron Drug Co., agents for Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

During a recent visit to Chicago, Dr. Robert Collier told how his mother had heard him preach for the first time in her life at Leeds thirty-five years ago, and walked proudly away from the church on his arm. Looking fondly up at him, she said: "I'm not sure, lad, that I understood thy sermon this morning, and I'm not sure I would have believed it if I had, but make sure, lad, I

DON'T NEGLECT

A Common Case of Piles—It may Lead to Serious Results.
(From the Sydney Herald.)

When people generally understand that all such fatal diseases as fistula, ulcer of the rectum, fissure, etc., almost invariably begin in a simple case of piles, they will learn the wisdom of taking prompt treatment for the first appearance of trouble in this quarter. Doan's Ointment will certainly cure every form of piles—itching, bleeding, protruding, or blind piles—and hundreds of lives have been saved by using this cheap, effective remedy right at the start, because at such a time a single pot will effect a cure, while in the old chronic, deep-seated cases, several pots are sometimes necessary before a lasting cure is effected. Here is a case:

Mr. William Gilliver, of the well-known firm of Gilliver & Curtis, railway and general contractors, and whose private address is "Avoca," Bankstown, has written the following unsolicited letter, which we herewith publish in full:

Messrs. Foster-McClellan Co., 76 Pitt St., Sydney, N. S. W., February 14, 1899.

Dear Sirs:—In justice to you and suffering humanity I write to say that I suffered from itching piles for 22 years. I tried many doctors and pretty well all kinds of patent medicines, but got relief for a short time only. Seeing your Ointment advertised I bought a pot and did not use more than one-half of it, not six months ago, and I am perfectly cured. You may use this as you wish.

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM GILLIVER.

It cannot be repeated too often that Doan's Ointment will cure itching piles. IT WILL CURE THEM ABSOLUTELY. But do not take the manufacturer's word for this; ask or write Mr. Gilliver; he knows, for it cured him, and he lives in Bankstown, a suburb 12 miles from Sydney. Is not that the best possible kind of proof? Could there be better?

Doan's Ointment is sold by all dealers at 50 cents per box or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
